UM SINGING GROUP
TO ENTERTAIN ALUMNI
AFTER G.E. COLLEGE BOWL

MISSOULA, Mont.---

University of Montana (UM) alumni in the New York City area will be in for a special treat Sunday (May 18) following the General Electric College Bowl appearance of a four-man team from the University.

A dozen University of Montana singing Jubileers will perform for the alumni at the Tin Lizzie Restaurant in New York following the 6 p.m. (EDT) College Bowl broadcast.

Dr. Joseph A. Mussulman, an associate professor of music at UM, is Jubilee director. He is accompanying the group.

Sunday's College Bowl broadcast by the NBC-TV Network is scheduled to be shown locally at 4 p.m. (MDT) on KGVO-TV and by cable at 7 p.m. (MDT) on KHQ-TV.

The Jubileers from Montana completed a USO entertainment tour of military bases in the Northeast Command this week. They will enplane at Kennedy Field May 19 for a flight to London, where they begin a two-week European tour.

The four-man College Bowl team from the University of Montana will match wits and speed with a team from Lehigh University, which defeated a team from Indiana University last Sunday.

College Bowl team members from Montana include James E. Curry, a senior in history from Ekalaka; George Robert Blair, a junior in wildlife from St. Louis, Mo.; Scott Wheeler, a senior in history from Spokane, Wash., and William E. Larson, a senior in liberal arts from Great Falls. Robert M. Murdo, a senior in history and economics from Billings, is UM team alternate.

Dr. Robert T. Turner, a UM professor of history, is adviser to the UM team.

Dr. Turner and the UM team will enplane at Johnson-Bell Field west of Missoula at 10:20 a.m. Friday (Northwest Flight 104) for the trip east. The University representatives are due to arrive back at the airport at 5:53 p.m. Monday (Northwest Flight 109).

If Montana wins this Sunday's College Bowl battle, then the team will return to New York the following week to compete against a team from another college or university.

Jubileers who will perform for UM alumni Sunday in New York City include Susan Teresa Volkel, Alan H. Taylor, Don MacDonald and Michael R. Swisher, Missoula; Nancy Johnson, Conrad; Jeannine Marie Morrow, Baker; Donna Lenore Morey, Butte; Gregory W. Devlin, Polson; Robert E. Quist, Cut Bank; Randy Lee Harrison, Billings; ArLynn V.
